 Heading allowed in games but limited heading at practice per U.S. Soccer Initiatives Player Development

Presidio/SDDA is implementing the following rule on “Heading the Ball”.

Presidio is implementing the following rules regarding Heading of the Ball for youth players in practice and games:

1. Players 2007 and younger shall not engage in heading, either in practices or in games.
2. Limited heading in practice for players 2005 and 2006 age groups. These players shall be limited to a maximum of 30 minutes of heading training per week, with no more than 15-20 headers per player, per week.
3. Clubs / Teams should be aware of circumstances in which individual consideration is needed. For example: A 10 year old playing at 2006 or older should not head the ball at all; an 11 or 12 year old playing at 2005 or older should abide by the heading restrictions in practice.
4. Referees should enforce these restrictions by birth year according to the specified rules for that age group.
Referees will not be assessing the age of individual players on the field; they will enforce the rules for the age group.
To calculate the age group of a team, subtract the team’s birth year from 2018. (example, 2018 - 2005 birth year = Age 13)
5. In the opinion of the referee, when a player deliberately heads the ball, an indirect free kick (IFK) will be awarded to the opposing team from the spot of the offense. If the deliberate header occurs within the penalty area or goal area by either team, the indirect free kick (IFK) is taken by the opposing team on the penalty area line parallel to the goal line at the point nearest to where the infringement occurred.
